

HORSHAM RESIDENCE

Horsham, Pennsylvania, USA

RAFAEL VIÑOLY ARCHITECTS

Located in the rolling hills of eastern Pennsylvania, this private family house is arranged around a square entry courtyard that serves as both the heart of the house and the terminus of a winding driveway through the carefully designed naturalistic landscape of the secluded estate. Along with the usual complement of living and service areas, the plan includes ample daylit wall space for the patron's extensive collection of modern paintings, a theater for film projection and other forms of entertainment, and an extensive temperature- and humidity-controlled wine cellar. The house is clad in rough-hewn yellow and brown rock quarried near the site that—with the inclusion of a three-story observation tower—gives it a minimalist castle aesthetic.
